Triumph of Emancipation.

The returns of our charter election, which we publish this morning will show a noble and prolific victory achieved by the free white working men of St. Louis. We call it noble, because it has vindicated the rights it noble, because it has vindicated the rights and dignity of white labor; we call it prolific, because it is but the precursor of many others that are to follow. After an animated contest, with all the engineering of consolidated party drill against it, with all the stereotyped traditions of past politics to encounter, and all the politics and animosity of slavery prejudices and slavery timidities hanging as an incubus upon the movement, the cause of the white man, the free man, the laboring man, has been the successful ing the more to be reputed at the more to be solemnized in the hereafter—inasmuch as the triumph has been achieved by no evasive canvass—by no concealments of principle—by no false pretences or questionable doctrines. The issue was boldly made by the nullifiers, and as boldly met. Free labor was assailed in its stronghold, and free Labor stood up for its rights and viudicated its dignity not less then its authority. The gauntlet was thrown down by the advocates of slavery perpetuation, and it was manfully taken up by the democracy and by those who look forward to ultimate emancipation as a coming and a pressing necessity of state policy. Violent and democrately acts upon free specials and a free press were met by still freer thoughts and still more emphatic utterance. And the result has answered the expectation of the sult has answered the expectation of the sult has answered the expectation of the most sanguine. From fifteen hundred to two thousand majority over the acknowledged champion of the opposition is what we may claim in point of numbers, and in point of prestige we may claim everything. The future of St. Louis belongs to her working men—to her mechanics—to her meritarity to her workstrutter, to her meritarity to her workstrutter. chants-to her manufacturers-to her artizans—in short to her true democracy, for there is no democracy other than that of labor. They have in their hands the hereuter to mould it as they will. Let them be wary in action.

It remains to be seen what use the great party which has just achieved a victory so unlooked for by the country, so confidently expected by themselves, will make of their triumph. Will they encounter the fatal delays of Canne? Will they give up the ground they have won, and return to their tents with no longing for conquest? We trust not. We trust that what they have now done for themselves they may hereatter be induced to do for others. We trust, as now done for themselves they may becreater be induced to do for others. We trust, as they have gained a battle in their own persons, they will not hesitate, hereafter, to aid in-lending their strength to gain a battle for their Liends in the State likewise. Push on the phalanx of victory. "Nulla retorsum needing." vestioia.

Let them everywhere know, hereafter, that St. Louis has made a produmation inviting the people of the world to come and settle in their midst, assuring them, of protection in the control of the settle in the control of the control tection in person, property and opinion.— She is henceforth the free city of the valley of the Mississippi. She invites labor, capital and commerce, without distinction of tan and commerce, without distinction of country. She proposes herself as a centre of trade without any circumference.

In reference to the details of the election, it is only necessary to say that Mr. Wimer, the candidate of the true democracy, is elected by a constant of the true democracy, is elected by nearly two thousand over the highest opposition candidate—that we have curried the whole municipal ticket, as well us both branches of the City Council, and that the nullifiers, as far as we yet learn, have not elected a candidate in the city.

Days not elected a candidate in the city.
Our victory has truly been great and telling. The opposition had out their strongest man. Pratte has, time and again, been put forward as a great bugaboo, particularly by the Republicans; and without doubt he has, on account of his personal popularity, obtained a thousand more votes than any other candidate could have rec ived. But it was all of no avail. We have a fair, plump issue; a most decided, sweeping, overawing and overslaughtering majority.—
St. Louis has declared herself free-solt to the backbone. She has nobly sustained her great emancipation party.—St. Louis Dem., days if 8

AMERICAN REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR MAYOR, WILLIAM J. SWINBURNE

THE ELCTION.

At the time of going to press, we have no full particulars of the result in the city.-There is, however, no election of Mayor, is consequence of the number of tickets in the field. There were tickets with the names o Messrs. Finch, Macy and Cranston, each of which received a number of votes in addition to the regular American Republican nominee Wm. J. Swinburne and the Democratic nominee Wm. Littlefield. The names of Messrs. Finch and Marcy, we are sure were used against their consent, and wish, and we presume that of Mr. Cranston also.

The American Republican nominces are elected in Wards 1, 2 and 3. The Demoeratic in Ward 4, and no choice in Ward 5 as nearly as we can ascertain.

We will publish particulars to-morrow.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.—R. W. EMER son's lecture this evening at Aquidaeck Hall cannot fail to be attractive to all who consider it a favor to hear the greatest philosopher of our time. The subject to be discussed is "Works and Words," and we may expect to hear many fresh and humorous sayings as well as profound discourse on life from the "Sage of Concord."

We are requested to say that Subscribers' Tickets can be had at Ward's book-

The Hon. George H. Calvert, of New-port, addressed the Normal School on Mon-day afternoon. The object of the distinguished speaker was to impress upon those who are to undertake the education of the young, the immense moral responsibility eminent importance of their work, and to point out the glorious consequences that society had a right to expect from this labor when properly performed. Like everything from Mr. Calvort, the address was beautifully conceived and elegantly expressed. Prov. Post.

GEARY ON KANSAS .- At the meeting at Union Hall on Saturday evening last, Sen-ator Wilson stated that it was a fact with in his certain knowledge, that Gov. Geary wrote to President Pierce, sometime before the latter went out of office, that the suffer ings of the early Christians from persecu-tion did not exceed those of the Free State people of Kansas, and that the on-tenth that the latter have endured at the hand of the Pro-slavery men had not been told.—X.

CHINA.—The reigning Emperor of China is said to be forty-six years of ago. He is the seventh Emperor of the present dynasty, or Tartar-Mantchou dynasty, whose chief Tehoun-Tchi, was proclaimed in 1644. According to the Chinese historians, the organization of the celestial empire dates from 3000 years before our Saviour. The family of the reigning Emperor is composed of four sons and a daughter. The clider—Yili-Wei —heir to the throne, is now eighteen years of age. His mother died in giving him hirth. The young prince is said to be well educated; but he professes, like his father, a educated; but he professes, like his father, a profound hatred for foreigners. The second protound nerved for foreigners. The second son is named Yih Chun; he is fifteen years of age; the fourth is Yih Tsung. The Emperor's daughter, who is said to be an accomplished princess, it fifteen years of age.— She was married last year to a nephew of the Emperor, Prince Ting-Tsin Wang, who has the reputation of being highly educated. The Emperor has three brothers—Yung Trum, Mien Wang and Mien Hin; the latter degraded during the preceding reign, deprived of all his dignities and banished from the Court. He was accused of having been affiliated with a screet society for the purpose of suizing the crown. Twenty of his accomplies in the capital were tortured and put to death, and 600 in the provinces. minieters of the Emperor form a distinct category, and possess enormous power. They are fourteen in number, and are divided into two distinct clases.

Excursion.—The Roston folks are plan ning an excursion to Europe the coming summer. The Times says :-

An excursion of lifty or sixty gentleme An excursion of fifty or sixty gentlemen from Boston to visit England, Scotland and France, and to occupy two months in all, is being arranged by Messes, E. A. Curis and E. L. Mitchell, of this city; the date of starting being the 27th of June; and the price of a ticket, which will cover all expenses, is $376.

HINTS FOR THE SEASON. In the garden, plants will soon show signs of active life, the early blooming bulbous rooted flowers will in a short time exhibit their green leaves, and snow drops and crocuses make the par-terre gay with their young beauty. Shrubs and trees should, as soon as the frost is out of the ground, be transplanted. The species that come first in leaf, such as the gooseberry and current, in the kitchen gar den, the spirca mesercums, &c., in the shrubbery, and the willows, poplars and larches among ornamental trees, should first be attended to, and those that come forward more slowly, at as early a period as possi-ble. Many trees are lost every year by hurried and careless planting, in conse-quence of so many things required to be be done at once.

Have your hot beds made immediately whether for starting lettuce and cabbages o early annual flowers; you can also start in them many little things and strike cuttings of many kinds of plants. Give air every fine day, and cover well with muts during frosty days and clear, cold nights. If you have a thermometer in such frames all the better it is easier to judge by it than by the hand. Take care and not have too much heat and moisture in your trames, as that will be qually injurious as a very low tempera-

Have your manure placed in heaps, and di-tributed around the roots of roses and other shrubs, to be forked in as soon as the ground is in a proper condition.

Prepare a piece of ground in some warm sheltered position, for early pens, radishes, &c. The kinds that may be injured by frosts can be protected with mats or other

Prune your trees, cutting out any dead or superfluous wood. Prune your vines and tie them to stakes or trellises. Cut all dead wood from roses that bloom on last year's wood, such as the Queen of the Prairies: and cut down to a good strong bud all such as bloom on the recent wood, as do all the hybrid perpetupls.—Ohio Farmer.

Another Case of Cruelty on Board of a British Vessel.—In the Western Circuit (Exeter) March 20th, Hugh Orr, a sea captain, was tried for the murder of Ed-ward Devoe. A case of such fearful cruelty and atrocity as detailed in the opening of the case, was perhaps never heard. The the case, was perhaps never heard. The prisoner, a fine looking man, was the captain of a vessel called the Hannah Jane, of about 120 tons burthen. The deceased was a black man, a native of Boston, about 32 years of age, and was engaged as cook in the ship. The crew of the ship consisted of the ship. The crew of the ship consisten of the captain, six men, and a boy. In Feb-ruary, 1856, the vessel sailed from London of Names at le for a cargo of coals, and then to Newcastle for a cargo of coals, and then proceeded to Senegal, then to Cape Verde Islands, to Rio Grande, and then back to England. While they were in the Senegal river, the captain commenced a series of cruelties—beating and flogging the cook day by day for four weeks, until becoming weaker and weaker from these cruelties death, more merciful than his persecutor relieved him from his sufferings on the 3d of July. He was beaten by the captain and mate with ropes, with broom handles, and with a "cat," and when his back was raw he with a "cat," and when ms drack was ran ne was scrubbed with a brush. The pour fellow used to cry for meroy, and called upon the crew to come and help him, but the crew dared not interfere. When the vessel reached Rio Grande the crew informed the Consul there of the treatment the cook had received, and of his death, but he said he could not do anything in the matter. The ship arrived at Plymouth in December, and ad inquiry was instituted. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, and

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.-The New York Herald furnishes the following portentious information, derived from the increase in its own business:

"It indicates the vast expansion of business for this year. This expansion will last one, two, or three years, then the public may look for aqually times—but it is wis-dom for all to make hay while the sun shines. On or about the time of the next Presidential election in 1860, we believe this country will pass through a terrible political and financial convulsion that will shake the whole Union to its centre, in every relation of human life."

An account of the exact form in which An account of the exact form in which this revulsion is to come, and its precise offects, are reserved, we presume, for another occasion. But as only the Herald has the news, it will be cruel in that paper to withhold it from an anxious and alarmed public.

He entered the house of the eashier through a back door, about 11 o'clock Saturday night, and remained there until Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.— When the Cashier arrived from church, he missed some of the keys to the Bank and immediately suspected that the most important ones were stolen.

On looking into the bag where they were kept in a secret place, he found it filled with pieces of iron representing the keys. Not suspecting that the rogue would be in the house, a search was not made, but the daughter of the Cashier having gone up stars, looked under the bed and found the thief quietly enjoying himself with a lunch-eon. Help was called and he was arrested.

The keys were found in his possession.

The European Times publishes the following article of news from Paris:

"FLOPEMENT OF A PRIEST WITH HIS

The grand vicative had fled with with one office for mentance Mod'lle. Vaccousie by of his fair pentents, Mad'lle Vacquerin by name and one of the most beautiful girls in the place. What makes the affair so terrible just at this moment is, that this intrigue of the grand vicaire, which forms one of the accusations upon which Verger based his proofs of the corruption of the chergy, breaks out just as Verger and his damming proofs were beginning to be forgot. The young ludy, who has refused the most brillant offers of marriage, and who is possessed of a large fortune in her own right, has by the advices of her paramour, who is supposed to have been her lover ever since she first attended his confessional, five years ago, only waited until her coming of age and the transfer of her money from the hands of her relations into her own, to take hands of her relations into her own, to take this extraordianry and decided step. The grand vicaire is a tall, handsome man of good family. The fugitives have landed in England—and rumor declares that the received father has written to his bishop, aunouncing his attention of throwing his froe aux orties, and threatening, on the first sign of prospection, or auxorance on the sign of prosecution or annoyance on the part of the ecclesiastical authorities, to issue a public confirmation of all the horrible calumnier' which were suppressed in Verger's

THE SHIRT TREE.-According to Humboldt there is a tree in the South Sea Is lands which produces ready made shirts. The natives out off pieces of the tree about two feet long, from which they draw off the fibrous bark, as boys draw of the bark of chestnuts to make whistles. Each man seleas a tree near his own diameter, so that the shirt may be a good fit. When the the shirt may be a good fit. When the bark is off they cut a hole in each side to admit the arms. The shirts do not require any washing, starching or ironing, and a more convenient article for loafers could not be imagined. The same country produce bread fruit, so that a fellow may get his board and clothes gratis.

LOTTERIES.—The Latteries of Samuel Swan & Co., are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner.—They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to sould orders for tickets to firstly call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to so d orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co., are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2 50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mistify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn and result of drawing forwarded to all pur chasers.

LOTTERIES.—The well known Mary I and Consolidated Lotteries, of which R Firance & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as it manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day in the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets, vary from $1.00 to $20.—100 tickets however, sent unless the monmoney for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of unminumber on each ticket (after the Havani plan), and Tennay combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to 1000,000. All orders folickets or packages will receive prompt attension, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over. Address T. HUBBARID & Co.

MEDICINES.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE AGE.

A REMEDY which CURES IN FIVE Cholera Cognac Bitters. This traly wonderful scientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the best rep-Cholera Cognae Bitters. This truly woncernuscientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the best reputation of mything similar ever offered. It is without doubt, the best most efficient and generally acknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, diarrhova, and complaints of the stomach in general. The numerous patients who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relief in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since this standard remedy was introduced in the armies of the Allies in the Crimea, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases was diminished by over 75 per cent; in consideration of which, the inventor was presented by the French and English governments with a gold medal, bearing the inscription, "Hail! M Lenoux, the great chemist and inventor, by whose knowledge our armies are preserved from cholera."

This invaluable preparation is also a remedy for billiousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. Upon being taken, it creates appetite, and prevents the heaviness attendant upon eating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been tried with the most undoubted success, and the undersigned cán produce the best testimonials of our most celebrated physicians, as to its immediate and complete success, which he will be happy at any time to show to any that may wish to see them.

DROFESSOR WOOD offers for sale perfect HAIR RESTORATIVE. It in a short time restore the Hair, which habecome gray prematurely, to its original coloporation of the first property of the desired and itchings—remaye all cuttaneous cruptions, and render the scalp perfectly healthy, by restoring the secretive original vigor and strength, and thus samply nutriment and coloring matter to the roots. It does not Dye the hair, but is, in short a perfect Hair Invigorator and Tomic.

To the young, who so made admire the beautiful locks and ringlet, he feels that he will be pardoned if he offers the advice suggested by long study and extensive observation. It is to discard all vologue and stimulating oils for the hair, and keep always upon the foller a bottle of the Restorative for occusional use and we can safely predict, that henceforth silver locks will be upon hald heads. Let the dark eye be ever so piercing,—and the teeth be those of pearl—still, if the natural fluids be withheld from the hair, and in consequence becomes first dead and harsh, then gray, or falls off nature will be robbed of more than half its charms; as it is a sover a reign remedy for those who are gray as well as those who are bald, all must see the propriety of making only such application to the hair and scalp asis calculated to preserve hath in a healthy state.

Frof. Wood—Dear Sit—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced some fewers since, in make a trial of your Hair Restorative. I have used less than two bottles, but the gray hairs have disappeared; and although my hair has not fully attained its original color, yet the change is gradually going on, and I have great hopes that in a short time my hair will be added as formerly. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which, before was harsh and dry, and it has ecased to come out as formerly.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—I take pleasure in hearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restor ative. As far back as 1856 my hair commenced falling off until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall off for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many eclebrated preparations for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement I was induced to give your article a trial, and to my utter astonishment I found after a few applications that my hair became firmly set and passured by very glossy and besintiful appearance; and at the time I had used a quart bottle, my bald head was covered over with a young and vigorous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

HENEY GOODRICH

Yours, truly,
HENRY GOODRICH.
Carlyle, Ill., June 27, 1856.
I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Res torative, and as I thought permanently gray, but by the use of his Restorative, it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.
